

Product Warranty Policy

Document Version	2.1
Effective Date	2026-07-15
Document Owner	After-Sales Support

Warranty Period

Eligible laptops and electronic devices include a standard 12-month limited warranty beginning on the delivery date.

Coverage

The warranty covers manufacturing defects under normal use. It does not cover accidental damage, liquid damage, unauthorized repairs, or normal cosmetic wear.

Claim Process

Customers should provide the order ID, product serial number, and a description of the issue when submitting a warranty claim.

Service

Approved warranty claims may result in repair, replacement, or another remedy according to the applicable product terms.
